Lost and Found (The Curve Masters Book 3) Olivia Rigal

I drifted to a place in my mind where Leo always loved me as sincerely as I loved him, a place I never wanted to leave.

I was far away, yet I felt his lips on my neck, his teeth grazing my shoulder, his breath in my ear, and I heard his voice.

"You are mine, Diana, all mine."

My skin burned as his hand moved forward to explore a new territory and claim it.

Invited to Laura's Dungeon, Diana hoped to mend her broken heart in the arms of a stranger. Instead of falling into oblivion she stumbled onto the man she wanted to forget.
