The Memory Man: A Short Story Helen Smith

The Memory Man is an intriguing new short story from bestselling British author Helen Smith. Two women become friends in an abandoned post-apocalyptic building. A psychic makes contact with a lost soul. His apprentice tries to find news of a man he has lost touch with. Fragments of memories are traded and twisted. Friendship provides comfort, but the recovery of memories brings torment rather than reassurance - until truth becomes secondary to survival.

Recommended for readers who enjoyed The Miracle Inspector by Helen Smith.

"Smith has an extraordinarily rich imagination that never fails to surprise and delight." Huffpost Books
