...Then comes marriage...

Kat Fiorelli is the queen of Monterra. That was weird, but that's what you get for marrying the Crown Prince, and when his parents abdicate... Voila! You find yourself on the throne. But with Nico at her side, and running most of the show, she could handle it. Now if their plans for starting a family would kick into gear, she would be much happier with things. But wishing for things tends to get people into trouble, and Kat is no exception.

...Then comes baby in a baby carriage!

Pregnancy is no joke, and with it comes all sorts of adventures. Being a pregnant Royal is even worse, since literally everyone is watching. With the pressure of being on the throne, and her impending motherhood, Kat's fears come to life. Could she meet the world's expectations, and her own? Would she actually be able to handle this pregnancy on top of everything else? And the most important question of all...would her cravings ever go away?
