TITLE: WEST POINT WARLORD (Novel Edition) A donation to Wounded Warrior Project and Operation Homefront will be made with the purchase of the color print, platinum edition of West Point Warlord.

ENDORSEMENT: I have had the opportunity to fight in various locations across the planet...places like Somalia, Afghanistan, Northern Iraq, Pakistan as well as other places U.S. Forces "are not supposed to be." One of these places is well detailed in "West Point Warlord." Although the book is a work of fiction, it incorporates situations that have truly happened. It is a modern day war novel that accurately depicts life in the combat zone, challenges faced by warriors in combat, humor – in some cases, very dark humor, a camaraderie and love that is experienced daily by our Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, and Marines. It is a fascinating story written via open source, unclassified sources detailing a West Point graduate's battle against an Al-Qaeda arch enemy, Qand Agha, who is an evil and murderous Afghan warlord attempting to disrupt American Operations in Afghanistan. The story culminates in an exciting finale along the rugged mountainside of Northern Afghanistan. An exciting read with a masterful array of fictional characters, this novel gets its authentic feeling of true Army life based on the real life experiences of the authors - an Academy graduate, career Army officers with combat experience in Afghanistan during the early days of Operation Enduring Freedom. This page turner moves from the parade field at West Point along the banks of the Hudson River, to the attacks of September 11 at the Pentagon, to an exciting combat deployment to Afghanistan. I have known the O'Farrell family for over 25 years and their generational service to country is wholly admirable and unmatched. I would compliment this novel as a modern day "From Here to Eternity" with an inside view of cadet life at West Point and an appreciation for the follow on career of an Army family with it's struggles of war, love, and romance. This story has been written by former Army Officers who I know well and they definitely delivered on this project – truly outstanding!
