Running On Empty Emily Camp

Trouble always seems to follow Bree Morris.

When her estranged mother shows up with her younger siblings, she feels pulled to help them in anyway she can, even if it means leaving the security of her foster home. As if she didn't have enough already, trying to balance, school being a teenage mother, and her boyfriend, she finds herself overwhelmed. Unwilling to let others see her struggles, she puts on a brave, solid front.

In this story of faith, love, and friendship, follow Bree as she discovers family doesn't always have to be blood, but those who never leave.
