Social Work Contexts and Practice Marie Connolly, Louise Harms

Building on the strengths of the popular first edition, Social Work: Context and Practice is the most comprehensive text of its kind: encompassing the theory and practice of social work in both Australia and New Zealand. A variety of social work environments are explored with the fields of the practice covered, including: working with the elderly, child protection, mental health and drugs and alcohol, and community development. With an emphasis on cultural practice and field skill development, this text will be useful throughout students' entire education and into their professional lives.

New Edition Highlights:

- New Australian co-editor and contributors add a wealth of experience from both educators and practitioners within Australia and New Zealand
- Reflective practice questions and issues throughout teach students to review their own performance and to learn from personal experience
