Naïve, shy virgin Emma Harvey is looking for something. She does not know what it is until the Dogs of Exile, a biker club, visit her small, nowhere town of Axleton. By happy coincidence she has a day off from her cashier job at the local supermarket, and goes to The Spoon to see what's going on. There she meets the rugged, dangerous, rough Eli Stone. But she doesn't learn his name, not then.

What is she doing? This isn't like her. But when the nameless rider tells her to come with him, she finds herself following his instructions. He takes her out into the country, into a disused barn, and she does things she never dreamt herself capable of. Hot, steamy, sexy things.

Now, the nameless rider's child is in her belly. But he has left town, and she doesn't know if she will ever see him again. Is it her imagination, or can she hear the rumble of a motorbike outside her apartment?
