When you think of parenthood, do you envision camping, late night movie marathons, and pillow fights? Does parenting leave you filled with dread or excitement? Parenting can be an opportunity filled with laughter and chances to build positive memories - both for yourself and your children. It's a time to cherish the ones that God loaned to you for a little while, to help guide them in the direction God has planned for them and to be their friend throughout adulthood as you hold them tightly in your hearts forever. Please join me while I encourage, challenge (just a little), and help you remember all the fun that parenting can be while reminding you it's not a solitary assignment. We're in this together...so let's have some fun!
