Point of View Caoimhin

At a glance you take in my middle years, based on the salt-and-pepper close cropped hair and the unnecessary weight that betrays my interest in beer, wine and disinterest in gyms. You wouldn't need to be Sherlock to deduce a career on the grunt side of IT as I habitually wear promotional tee-shirts and baseball caps. Even the low-season rent of this place is sufficient to deduce middle class incomes enjoyed by middle age people. This is reality.

If there was any reason to relate these trivial events and irrelevant encounters under oath in a court of law - our statements wouldn't differ much from the account just related. It might surprise you to learn that I had spotted you, pegged you for late twenties and wondered if your boyfriend / husband / partner was much older. It might surprise me to learn that most of your attention was focused on my brother in law, as you initially thought you recognised him (you were mistaken). Neither of us would mention the Alien.

This story is a "Caoimhin Flash" piece of Science Fiction and Fantasy distributed as Short Reads from my home in the UK (and other Dimensions) where Aliens, AI and the Horror of Brain Sucking are a part of everyday life.
