“If this book was a college course, it would be called ‘Stay Married Forever 101.’” Grace Today Magazine If you are unmarried, there is no curse upon you! In fact, the worse thing that can happen to you is not to inquire of your Creator whether you should marry or not. If you are dating, you need insight as to why your relationships may not be working. If you are getting married the statistics show marriages ending in divorce are at record rates, and many married couples regret having entered into the marriage covenant. And To The Unmarried I Say... will provoke some introspective thought for the unmarried, those contemplating marriage and those who are already married, concerning dating, desperation, and the desire to live a life of purpose.
