Everyone needs someone: Poems of love and friendship Helen Steiner Rice

To love and be loved is a blessing from above. Love's value is greater than money; its rewards are everlasting. Friendship is the reflection of God's love in us. This book is filled with words of wisdom and comfort, expressing the warmth, the richness and the joy of all who love, who need people and friends. These poems bring the quiet assurance that God remains our constant companion and friend through all of life.
