My Mail Order Husband: Gay Western Romance Collin White

Note: This is a full length, stand-alone gay romance with no cliffhangers.

A letter in the mail, a hurried kiss goodbye, and a long train ride to his new life marks the end of Jame's childhood and the beginning of his new life.

What he finds when he arrives surprises him. His new partner is nowhere to be found, and he's informed that he'll be living by himself until the man who summoned him is finished overseeing a harvest.

To pass the time, he gets a job as a local schoolteacher... but a dangerous flirtation with his eldest student, Tom, will lead to a scenario he couldn't picture in his wildest dreams.

What he doesn't know is Tom isn't the man he seems to be... and he'll find out just how little he knows about the man he's spending the rest of his life with, when they finally meet face to face.

This book contains explicit sex scenes and is for mature readers.
