Raven's Call Dr. Mary Lee Peck

Country singer, Jan Taylor, struggles to find a meaningful balance between her love of music and her life on her Texas ranch with her sisters and her majestic stallion, Raven. When she meets Brett Kendall, a wealthy rancher and entrepreneur, at the AQHA World Show in Oklahoma, her life becomes even more complex. The three Taylor sister's experience the thrill of romance, the sorrow and fear of tragedy, and the anger of injustice as they struggle to hold on to the ranch they love in an economy that threatens the lifestyle and friendships they treasure. Through all the trials and confusion that life provides, Jan finds strength and hope in the majesty of her black stallion. Romance, intrigue, and the complexities of life combine to make Raven's Call an exciting and heartwarming story. Raven's Call is the first of several books in this series of stories about the quest of Jan and Raven to demonstrate the power of determination. The second book, Raven's Son, will be released in 2012. Mary Lee Peck has proven her ability as an outstanding story teller through her insights into memorable characters as they deal with the challenges of love and survival in the complex world.
