Scrambled Eggheads - Autos (Scrambled Eggheads Facts and Fancies Book 4) Gregory St. John Taylor, Elizabeth Lesse Taylor

In the world of common sense and logic, sometimes it is refreshing to cast these more than sensible attitudes away and jump into a world of facts and fancies. This one is about the engineering wonder known as the auto, or car, and deals with facts and fancies of the making and usability of this addictive necessity or hobby or madness. It's time to relax and have some fun. Enjoy the delightful contrasts between facts and fancies. In both cases there are some sober and serious points; and, at the same time you are presented with the pointless and the preposterous. A bit like life.

The Scrambled Eggheads are the creation of the authors. They are representative of what an egg can become, when left to its own devices. They are cartoon characters that present both facts and fancies in an amusing and animated fashion. Join the Scrambled Eggheads, and better yet, read the book, and become one.
