The economy and moral structure of America is crumbling, and all are becoming slaves of human knowledge... All around Azariah there are hurting and lonely people, searching for the Truth in their existence... After his identity being revealed to him, Azariah embarks on a journey to re-claim his rightful inheritance, tear down the wickedness of an Empire, and mentor a young man named Zaccai who accompanies him on his travels. The two young men travel the globe together while the United States Government pursues them on an international man-hunt, and Azariah reveals to Zaccai the true meaning of love the same way the Hebrew siblings revealed it to him. The Hebrew siblings make another special appearance in his life at just the right time, and when the two young men finally reach their destination to claim Azariah's inheritance, a stunning surprise awaits them!
