Self, Absurdity, and Feudalism in 21st Century America Daniel Martinez Ph.D.

America is noted around the world as the premier example of democracy and productive capitalism. But the reality is that an elite class, working in conjunction with a self-serving cooperative government, exploits America's middle- and lower-class workers, creating a covert feudal system which produces enormous wealth principally for the benefit of the ruling class. In the general population, social, moral, and political truth are distorted by a massive system of lies, propaganda, and popular delusions, making it even more difficult for the exploited workers to see through the blinding social fog. Those who confront the truth must face an unavoidable question: Do I want continue living my life as a mindless worker ant?
