In this ninth novel of the Haunted Series:

Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, a wedding looms on the horizon. Mia and Ted have cold feet, but it's not from wedding jitters. It's from tramping through the woods in search of the nightly marauders who have been haunting the small community adjacent to the forest. Six lost souls have been spotted. Can Mia and the PEEPs team help these children before the ghosts become more destructive?

Just when Mia and Ted think they are out of the woods, Sherriff Ryan pulls them back in. "Nothing good ever came out of Sentinel Woods." This warning echoes in Mia's mind as she, Ted and Murphy search for seven missing teenagers. Their hunt takes the couple deep into a hundred acres of sinkholes, quicksand and ancient trees, all governed by a vengeful deadly spirit.

Meanwhile, Ralph has been planning a "respectable spectacle" of a wedding for the young couple. With him in charge, it's full steampunk ahead.

Come join the PEEPs for fun, horror, and perhaps a happily ever after...
