Devon will do anything to protect his little sister from becoming a breeder, even if it means starting a war. After fleeing home in the middle of the night, Devon and his siblings seek refuge with his uncle. There he meets the fiery human, Lark. She is a temptation, one he can't afford. As battle lines are drawn, Devon's alpha instincts take over, and he must fight to keep the ones he loves safe, especially the woman who has stolen his heart.

Lark Davies has put her heart and soul into her bakery, The Cookie Jar. She doesn't have time for dating or a social life, but she is happy to spend her free time at the Harris Ranch. She knows the ranch occupants are werewolves, but they are family. When Devon Harris appears at the ranch, Lark instantly butts heads with him. Even if they can't seem to get along, there is something intriguing about him. She's known werewolves have existed for some time, but she never knew just how dangerous their world was.
